

My World

*Oh, I open my eyes
I wanna see more of me
Than just a gray room
Oh, I close my eyes
I see a door and I
Open it
Oh, I open my eyes
Day by day I've been seeing
These gray stale walls
But now, today, I'm gonna fly free
Through everything that's Surrounding me
Oh I open the door
And I see
The land I love
My world
Where the flowers
Are talking to me
And the trees are whistling music
The rivers are flowing gently
This is the world I love
My world.*
