Flower, Flower on the stem

Wouldn't you be my friend

Delicate and deiform,

You are the perfect pal to have along

Flower, Flower on the stem

Wouldn't you commiserate with me

Silent though nodding on

You are the perfect congenial to have along

Petals, Petals, along the pistil

Won't you let me take you

Pretty and fragile

You are the perfect thing to weave my dress!

Petals, Petals, along the pistil

Won't you let me smell you

Scented and divine

You are the perfect addition to my perfume

Petals, Flowers, don't be afraid

Everyone's just eager to have you

Enjoy your popularity, you deserve it

You are the best!
